

LEAD PRACTITIONER ENGLISH

TLR 1A - £7,696

Do you want to work in an Outstanding Secondary School, and support and influence the leadership of an Outstanding English Faculty? If so, then we want to hear from you.

Following the promotion of the current post holder, we want to appoint a Lead Practitioner for 1 January 2018, to join our vibrant and highly successful English Faculty. You will be an innovative, experienced English specialist with a proven track record of helping students to make good and better progress. You will have a key role in the management structure of the English Faculty and be responsible for further developing the teaching of English and improving learning outcomes for all learners.

We can provide you with an exciting career opportunity where you can develop and hone your teaching skills with students of all abilities, in a safe, secure and supportive secondary school environment. We recognise that our staff are the most important resource of the College. As such, we will invest in you and provide you with the best personal programme of professional development and improvement.

We are an Outstanding Inner City School, but we are very different. Working together as 'Team Wright Robinson,' learners want to learn and relationships between staff and pupils are second to none!

We have a fantastic College environment which is supported by the latest resources which support and improve learning. We are located on the east side of Manchester with fantastic communication links across the whole of the North West Region.

We look forward to receiving your completed application form. Please note that if you are shortlisted for interview a full tour of the College will be provided on the day of interview.

Closing date for receipt of applications: 9.00 am on 20 October 2017.

Interviews will be held on Monday 30 October 2017
